EDITORIAL

In representation of the Scientific Committee of the Journal of The Chilean Chemical Society, we regret to inform at the entire scientific community the death of Dr. Eduardo Quiroz Universidad Austral de Valdivia, Chilean Representative of Chemistry Olympiad in the South and Dr. Luis Astudillo, University of Talca. Both distinguished academics of exceptional human qualities whose ideas, concerns and trajectory in the dissemination of science, constituted an example to us all.

The scientific community regrets this loss to science and honors for his successful work in the teaching and research activities.
